The death of Algernon Charles Sartoris, the husband of General U. S. Grant's daughter Nellie, occurred in Capif Pebruary 3d. Mrs. Sartoris does not yet know the cause of the death of the man who brought her so much sorrow. It is not likely to make any difference in her mode of life. She will continue to live in London attending to the education of her three children. The story of the marriage and separation of Nellie, the daughter of President Grant, and Algernon Charles Sartoris, is well known. Sartoris, who was described as a rough, cross grained Englishman, was more than wanting in respect to his affined bride before marriage, once called upon the marriade ouple, the husband said: "He could not see what there was about Algernon to cause the daughter of the President Grant was greatly depressed at the time of his daughter's marriage, and quite broke down which a bade her good-bye on her week before the marriage, that has daughter's marriage, and quite broke down which be date her good-bye on her week before the marriage, that he greatly regreted that Nellie he dichoed a for element of the service of the proving the safety of the proving the safety of the proving the safety is properly the safety of the proving the safety is properly the safety of the proving the safety is properly the safety of the proving the safety is properly the safety of the proving the safety is proving to England, must have had a most unhappy honeymon.

As COMPARED with other great commercial Nations, this country has no reason for discouragement in regard to the quantity of gold it holds. Of the Gold Stocks of four countries, the Leading Nations. United States, the United Kingdom, France stands at the head of the list with a gold stock of $900,000,000; the United Kingdom, the United States comes next, with $854,000,000, while Gormany has $800,000,000; the United States comes next, with $854,000,000, while Gormany has $800,000,000, the least amount of the four. Notwithstanding all the talk about our fors of gold the fact remains that the amount of gold in the country is, on the whole, increasing. The stock of silver in the country is valued at $875,000,000, which is $79,000,000 less than the gold stock. France successfully maintains the gold standard while carrying a silver stock of $470,000,000. AMERICAN newspapers are already discussing the erection of a fitting montiment to Jakes 6. Blainze. It is within the power of the United States Government to Jakes 6. Blainze. It is within to Blainze and the monory of the great champlon of american rights in signally impressive manner. Mr. Blainze was one of the first American state men to appreciate the grandeur of the future that is before the United States. He saw that this Nation was destined to become the supreme power of the Western Hemisphere, the leader and protector of the weaker American Republies, the arbite of peace and war on both continuents. He labored uncessingly to liberate the countries of Latin American foom from the weaker and good will. His constant aim as Secretary of State was to secure to this country the commanding advantages in the New World to which it is entitled by its position, its resources and its civilization. American dominance in the Pacific is indispensable in this magnificent scheme of peaceful empire. Havail was an important factor in Mr. Blatnyk's plansing a memorable state paper he declared that it was "inseparably identified" with the American system of commerce and government, and announced the purpose of this country to draw closer the bonds "which imperatively intel to the great body of American commonwealths." He knew that Hawail was, for America, the gateway to the Orient; that its domination by this government would insure the development of a great Pacific commerce, enhance the value of the Nicaragua Canal and give the United States an immense increase of power and prestige throughout all American and prestige throughout all American the promote the Americanization of this rich maritime stronghold, in anticipation of the ilms when "an avowelly American solution" of the question of the Hawaiian control should demand the attention of the Government at Washington.
